Los Angeles policemen are paid $80 per month for their services. This is too much for a poor policeman and too little for a good one. We are becomuniformed and well paid police force.

A ONE-TRACK railroad is to be built at Austin, Texas. It is a short line, to be constructed at the contractor's expense, but if on trial it gives satisfaction he is to be paid $4,000 per mile for it. Could not a contract be let on the same terms to build the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad?

ENGINEER CRAWFORD left for San Francisco some days ago, on business connected with the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad: It is expected that on his return the company will commence active operations, and we should not be surprised if called on to record the fact that grading the roadbed had commenced within the next two months.

SMITH, the Gubernatorial "claimant" of Arkansas, is said to be a son of "Delusion" SMITH of Oregon. "Delusion" himself. He was Minister to Mexico in JOHN TYLER'S time, and though honest John very much desired to dismiss him, he dodged about so successfully that the notice of dismissal could not be served on him.

THE rivalry between the Central Pacific Railroads and the Pacific Mail Steamship companies is pleasant to the princely estates in monarchial contemplate, as well as financially profitable to the people of the Pacific Coast. But for the check held on the railroad companies by the steamship company, freights across the continent would be considerably, perhaps fifty per cent. higher than now. The people have abundant reason to hope the competition will continue, for through it we are assured of reasonably low freights. The railroad companies have made repeated efforts to compromise with their rival, but so far nothing definite has been accomplished.

years the most radical of Radicals, has gone back on his record and now pronounces against the equal rights of others, saw the Cucamonga Home-stead Association pretty extensively He maintains the justice of the principles incorporated in the Civil Rights | Stead Association pretty extensively advertised in San Francisco and in the Civil Rights | San Francisco and in the Civil Rights | San Francisco, December 18th.—

The Coroner's Jury yesterday, in the case of McInivary, heard the dying bill, but opposes all attempts to carry these principles into practice on the ground that the people will not subscribe to the advanced measure and that it is inexpedient to force the issue. It is probable that in using the word "inexpedient." BEN said more than he intended. Politicians generally abandon a proposition when they find the people cannot be made to support it nor keep those in office who do.

THE letter addressed to GEORGE C. THE letter addressed to GEORGE C. be no such unseemly haste on the part GIBBS Esq., the first of which we of "J. G. D." to rush in defence of an print in the HERALD of this morning unassailed corporation. And, by-the-way, Mr. Editor, can you tell us if the was written a little before the late was written a little before the late Cucamonga land speculative company meeting of the State Grange at Stock- are incorporated or not; and if charton for the purpose of being submitted to that body. Mr. GIBBS being unexpectedly prevented from attending the meeting, forwarded it by mail to a brother delegate for presentation. It did not, however, reach him. Upon request it was returned by the Postmaster at Stockton, and having obtained a copy we publish it in the belief that not alone the Grangers but every American citizen whose chief business is the cultivation of the soil will find in it suggestions worthy of careful consideration.

Which the day last. The account was received from the driver of the Jefferson stage, and is published verbatim:

"Well, they did have a killing over careful consideration.

"Unwritten History."

JOAQUIN MILLER'S book, "Unwritten History," has one merit not often found in the pages of modern bookmakers: it is written from an original standpoint and talks about a people whose history has been unwritten until Joaquin became their chron- in two shots first. Killet's first shot icler. The story is life among the Shasta and Modoc Indians, and if MILLER has not correctly written the annals of those people it is not for want of information on the subject whereof he writes, for he lived for several years with and as a member of those tribes. His "Unwritten History" is but a fragment of his own life-the details of events "all of which he saw and part of which he was." Curious by nature, with a memory so retentive that he photographs scenes, faces and incidents as they pass and retains them as engravings on steel, MILLER could not but have acquired vast stores of Indian lore during the years that he lived and roamed with the Modocs and Shastas. All this he has woven in his peculiar wild, semipolished style in "Unwritten Hispolished style in "Unwritten His-land of gold and silver. The great tory." To the old Californian and to Mammoth ledge is about 180 feet wide

Texas Pacific Railroad.

Already the Texas and Pacific Railroad is receiving favorable mention in Congress and we confidently predict that before the close of the session substantial national aid will be afforded this great undertaking. Rail- capital to take hold. road subsidy in land, money or any other shape is by no means popular sential to future prosperity; yet the necessity for a transcontinental railroad traversing a Southern route is so great and so well understood that opposition to Government assistance to its construction would not be general. The Southern Pacific road will extend far eastward in a few months. The company is now sending forward to its terminus at Spadra a large amount of construction material, and it is probable that by the 1st of July the ing metropolitan and ought to have a cars will be running as far east as San Gorgonio Pass. The commencement of operations on the eastern side of the continent will stimulate the Southern Pacific Company and the work of track laying will go steadily forward on both the Pacific and Atlantic sides, and in a much less time than we now count upon, the Southern overland road will be completed. Improvement.

It is an easy thing for a city to boast of its growth and prosperity; but quite another thing to prove the assertion with facts. Here in Los Angeles we have stubborn facts to back our declaration that our city has advanced more rapidly during the year than any other corporate town in the State. Our architects and builders unite in the estimate that two hundred new buildings have been erected during the year, costing from $1000 to $30,000 each. constituted.

AUSTIN, Nev., December 15th.—The Reville of this evening publishes the following account of a shooting affray which occurred at Jefferson on Sun-there, sure enough. It came on about a poker game. There was a big fellow named James Donovan and a little fellow named Killet, though some call him Texas, but he's Killet sure now. Well, the game was busted up about something, and Killet went off and heeled himself, and when he came back Donovan backed five paces and Killet went forward five paces and turned and went for his man. Then went in the air; his second was a center shot, and hit Donovan between the two eyes, when he fell, and Killet emptied his pistol and said: "Boys, I hated to do it, but I couldn't help it.' Killet gave himself up and they held a jury over the corpse. The jury said he came to his death by a pistol shot. Killet is to have a trial before Justice Marshall, and they sent to Belmont for lawyer Williams to defend him; and I understand that Frank Owen will defend the deceased.'

Note-Frank Owen is District Attorney of Nye county, and the driver probably meant that he would prosecute the defendant.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A large hotel will soon be erected at Cucamonga.

Several $30,000 residences will soon be erected in the suburbs of this city. The Wm. Taber will sail for San Francisco to-morrow.

Ranchmen in the neighborhood of Los Angeles report half an inch of ice yesterday morning. Look out for the Chinese Laundry and the Mutton Trial at Little Mac's Minstrels to-night. Between one hundred and fifty and two hundred buildings have been erected in Los Angeles during the present year. The Lafayette Hotel is to have another story added to it. The present dimensions of the house are too small to meet the increased patronage. There is a chance for an intelligent and willing boy to procure employ-ment at the Fish and Poultry Market, Los Angeles street. The schooner Ivanhoe, Captain Welsh, sailed from Wilmington this morning for San Francisco, to stop at Point Sal. The whole number of Granges rereported this month in the United States is 21,472, an increase of 364 during November.

The examinations in the English-German school, under the superintendence of Prof. Ploennis, passed off very successfully yesterday. The scholars exhibited a degree of proficiency, both in English and German, in which they have had equal training, which reflected credit upon their industry and the care of their teacher. A good number of visitors were present during the day to lend encourage-ment to the cause by their presence. After the close of the examinations, the scholars surprised the Professor by a multitude of Christmas gifts, each contributing something as a mark of esteem. There will now be a vacation of the schools until January 4th.

Mr. Will R. Bettis lately engaged in Brodrick's book-store, has taken the agency in our city for several new books soon to be issued from the Eastern press. He is now canvassing for Joaquin Miller's latest work, "Unwritten History or Life Among the Modocs." This work is destined to become universally popular, and we have no doubt that Mr. Bettis will ind a large sale for it in Los Angeles. Mr. John W. Wolenburg, late chief clerk of the Clarendon Hotel will also do something in the canvassing line in conjunction with Mr. Bettis. Both of the young gentlemen are widely and favorably known here and we bespeak for them the best of success.

THE DAY IS DONE.

BY H. W. LONGFELLOW

The day is done, and the darkness Falls from the wings of Night, As a feather is wafted downward

From an eagle in his flight.

I see the light of the village Glean through the rain and the mist, And a feeling of sadness comes o'er me,

That my sout cannot resist. A feeling of sadness and longing, That is not akin to pain,

And resembles sorrow only
As the mist resembles the rain. Come read to me some poem, Some simple and heartfeit lay, That shall soothe this restless feeling, And banish the thoughts of day.

Not from the grand old masters, Not from the bards sublime, Whose distant footsteps echo Through the corridors of time.

For, like the strains of martial music, Their mighty thoughts sugge t Life's endless toil and endeavor, And to-night I long for rest.

Read from some numble poet, Whose songs gushed from his heart, As showers from the clouds of Summer, Or tears from the eyelids start.

Who, through long years of labor, And nights devoid of ease, Still heard in his spul the music Of wonderful melodies.

The restiess pulse of care, And come like the benediction

That follows after prayer. Then read from the treasured volume. The poem of thy choice,
And lend to the rhyme of the oet
The beauty of thy voice.

And the night shall be filled with music, And the cares that infest the day Shall fold their tents like the Arabs, And as silently steal away.

SAN GABRIEL, April 20, 1874.

My little boy, over two years old, has suffered terribly for more than a year from obstruction of the URINARY organs. All means of relief seemed unavailing, until I was advised to consult with Dr. LEAL of Los Angeles. After a critical examination he found and removed a stope from the uretha weighing five grains. Immediately relief followed, and my child is now well.

W. J. JONES. Gratitude.

Grateful, not only for entire relief from terrible suffering of seven years' standing, but a perfect cure of internal piles by an operation scarcely more painful than my dally sufferings before the operation. I feel it a duty I owe to those similarly afflicted to give this testimonial of the skillful and efficient treatment of DR. J. H. LEAL, of Los Angeles. Dr. Leal's success is more highly appreciated from the fact that several of the prominent physicians of Los Angelss had treated me without understanding my disease, and of course without success.
